

DAV ISPAT PUBLIC SCHOOL, NANDINI MINES

(ENGLISH MEDIUM)

Swami Dayanand Saraswati (1824-1883) was a man of vision, who devoted his life to the upliftment of social and moral values in the society. His description of the ideal society and state has always included references of a prosperous economy, abolition of poverty, just distribution of wealth, education and satisfying occupation for all men according to their abilities.

To achieve this noble goal propounded by Swamiji, the DAV College Trust and Managing Society was formed in 1886 which set up its first DAV School at Lahore with Mahatma Hans Raj as its Honorary Principal. This was the beginning of a nation wide movement that is known as DAV Movement, spread all over India and abroad.

Today, the DAV College and Managing Society runs several hundred schools in the country and abroad, and is recognized as a leader in the field of education. Providing and developing a scientific temperament blended with Vedic culture and values.

DAV Ispat Public School, Nandini Mines is the latest venture of the DAV College Trust & Managing Society, which promises to provide quality education with uncompromising standards to the children of Nandini Mines town ship and surrounding areas.
